Re: Melvin Newsome, et al. v. Up-To-Date Laundry, et al.
Civil No. WDQ-01-2257

Dear Counsel:

This is to confirm that the settlement conference in the above-captioned case has been rescheduled at the request of counsel to Wednesday, March 31, 2004, at 9:30 a.m., to be held in my chambers (Room 8D, United States Courthouse, 101 West Lombard Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201). It is essential that the parties, or in the case of a corporation or partnership, an officer or other representative with complete authority to enter into a binding settlement, be present in person. Attendance by the attorney for a party is not sufficient. See Local Rule 607.3. Please also be advised that the conference may take the entire day.

No later than March 10, 2004, I would like to receive from each party a short letter candidly setting forth the following:

1. Facts you believe you can prove at trial;

2. The major weaknesses in each side's case, both factual and legal;
3. An evaluation of the maximum and minimum damage awards you believe likely;
4. The history of any settlement negotiations to date; and
5. Estimate of attorney's fees and costs of litigation through trial.

The letters may be submitted ex parte and will be solely for my use in preparing for the settlement conference. I also will review the pleadings in the court file. Additionally, if you want me to review any case authorities that you believe are critical to your evaluation of the case, please identify. If you want me to review any exhibits or deposition excerpts, please attach a copy to your letter.¹

The settlement conference process will be confidential and disclosure of confidential dispute resolution communications is prohibited. See 28 U.S.C. § 652(d); Local Rule 607.4.

Notwithstanding the informal nature of this letter, it is an Order of the Court and the Clerk is directed to docket it as such.

I look forward to seeing you on March 31st.

Sincerely yours,

/s/

Susan K. Gauvey
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ Please note that the American Bar Association Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility has issued a Formal Opinion (No. 93-370) that precludes a lawyer, ABSENT INFORMED CLIENT CONSENT, from revealing to a judge the limits of the lawyer's settlement authority or the lawyer's advice to the client regarding settlement. The opinion does not preclude a judge, in seeking to facilitate a settlement, from inquiring into those matters. Therefore, please discuss these items with your client before appearing for the settlement conference.

FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS.

ADDITIONAL NOTICE TO COUNSEL

In addition to the standard information requested in the attached letter, Judge Gauvey also requests the name and position of the individuals who will be attending the conference.

Also since settlement conferences are often more productive if the parties have previously exchanged demands and offers and have made a good faith effort to settle the case on their own, Judge Gauvey requires that the plaintiff submit a written itemization of damages and a settlement demand to the defendant on March 10, 2004, with a copy to the Court, and the defendant shall submit a written offer to the plaintiff and any alternate itemization of damages on March 17, 2004, again with a copy to the Court.

Thereafter, the parties should continue to engage in negotiations.

Finally, if counsel believes that a telephone conference prior to the March 31 in-person conference would be advisable to make the settlement conference more productive, please contact my judicial assistant, Donna Cowan, to make arrangements.
